COLLAND	Approved For Release 2007/02/23 FC/A RDP82-00457R014000400002-4 ~ Zechoslovakia REPORT NO	25X1
OPIC	1. Military Information from Pribmam	- Inches
7	2. Lilitary Occupation in Roudnice	-25X1
		25X1
	DATE PREPARED 29 August 1952
GES_	1 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)	· Angelinger - Version (Section
MARI
~~~~~
akan inggangan w		4
		25X1
	ilitary Information from Pribram.  In mid-March 1952, the bar acks installation northeast of the Pribram (N 50/L 53) railroad station was occurred by a motorized artillery unit. The soldiers of this unit fore black follar patches. Trucks towing about eight guns, with barrels about 2 meters long, were seen outside the installation. Four groups of about 30 soldiers each were regularly engaged in athletic activities.  An SNB unit of about 3 persons who were red-ribboned caps was quartered in a barracks installation in Vykmanov in December 1953. The installation in transcriptions are seen to be a seen by the second of the pribability of the installation in Vykmanov in December 1953.	25X
	In mid-March 1952, the bar acks installation northeast of the Pribram (N 50/L 53) railroad station was occurred by a motorized artillery unit. The soldiers of this unit fore black follar patches. Trucks towing about eight guns, with barrels about 2 meters long, were seen outside the installation. Four groups of about 30 soldiers each were regularly engaged in athletic activities. *  An SNB unit of about 3 persons who were red-ribboned caps was quartered in a barracks installation in Vykmanov in December 1951. The installation consisted of one new and one old section. The unit seen there was armed with submachine guns and light machine guns and received infantry training. 	25X
i.	In mid-March 1952, the bar acks installation northeast of the Pribram (N 50/L 53) railroad station was occurred by a motorized artillery unit. The soldiers of this unit fore black follar patches. Trucks towing about eight guns, with barrels about 2 meters long, were seen outside the installation. Four groups of about 30 soldiers each were regularly engaged in athletic activities. *  An SNB unit of about 3 persons who wore red-ribboned caps was quartered in a barracks installation in Vykmanov in December 1951. The installation consisted of one new and one old section. The unit seen there was armed with submachine guns and light machine guns and received infantry training.   ilitary Occupation in Roudnice.	25>
	In mid-March 1952, the bar acks installation northeast of the Pribram (N 50/L 53) railroad station was occurred by a motorized artillery unit. The soldiers of this unit fore black follar patches. Trucks towing about eight guns, with barrels about 2 meters long, were seen outside the installation. Four groups of about 30 soldiers each were regularly engaged in athletic activities. *  An SNB unit of about 3 persons who were red-ribboned caps was quartered in a barracks installation in Vykmanov in December 1951. The installation consisted of one new and one old section. The unit seen there was armed with submachine guns and light machine guns and received infantry training. 	25×
i.	In mid-Narch 1952, the bar acks installation northeast of the Pribram (N 50/L 53) railroad station was occuried by a motorized artillery unit. The soldiers of this unit ore black collar patches. Trucks towing about eight guns, with barrels about 2 meters long, were seen outside the installation. Four groups of about 30 soldiers each were regularly engaged in athletic activities. *  An SNB unit of about 3 persons who wore red-ribboned caps was quartered in a barracks installation in Vykmanov in December 1951. The installation consisted of one new and one old section. The unit seen there was armed with submachine guns and light machine guns and received infantry training.   Lilitary Occupation in Roudnice.  In February 1951, a section of the castle on the east edge of Roudnice (N 51/F 62) was occupied by a unit of about 150 to 200 soldiers who wore red service color. Only a small detail had been stationed there prior to 1950. The unit which consisted of two sections of equal strength was armed only with small arms during marches.	25X
	In mid-March 1952, the bar acks installation northeast of the Pribram (N 50/L 53) ratiroad station was occuried by a motorized artillery unit. The soldiers of this unit fore black follar patches. Trucks towing about eight guns, with barrels about 2 meters long, were seen outside the installation. Four groups of about 30 soldiers each were regularly engaged in athletic activities.*  An SNB unit of about 3 persons who wore red-ribboned caps was quartered in a barracks installation in Vykmanov in December 1951. The installation consisted of one new and one old section. The unit seen there was armed with submachine guns and light machine guns and received infantry training.   Lilitary Occupation in Roudnice.  In February 1951, a section of the castle on the east edge of Roudnice (N 51/F 62) was occupied by a unit of about 150 to 200 soldiers who wore red service color. Only a small detail had been stationed there prior to 1950. The unit which consisted of two sections of equal strength was armed only with small arms during marches.  Uniformed women were repeatedly seen in the town in carly 1951. No information was available on their assignment.  Comment. The installation is the Horymirovy Barrachs which, in July 1951, was occupied by a motorized artillery unit, annuarently an AT unit.	25X 25X 25X
:	In mid-March 1952, the bar acks installation northeast of the Pribram (N 50/L 53) ratiroad station was occuried by a motorized artillery unit. The soldiers of this unit fore black follar patches. Trucks towing about eight guns, with barrels about 2 meters long, were seen outside the installation. Four groups of about 30 soldiers each were regularly engaged in athletic activities.*  An SNB unit of about 3 persons who wore red-ribboned caps was quartered in a barracks installation in Vykmanov in December 1951. The installation consisted of one new and one old section. The unit seen there was armed with submachine guns and light machine guns and received infantry training.   Lilitary Occupation in Roudnice.  In February 1951, a section of the castle on the east edge of Roudnice (N 51/F 62) was occupied by a unit of about 150 to 200 soldiers who wore red service color. Only a small detail had been stationed there prior to 1950. The unit which consisted of two sections of equal strength was armed only with small arms during marches.  Uniformed women were repeatedly seen in the town in carly 1951. No information was available on their assignment.  Comment. The installation is the Morymirovy Barrachs which, in July 1951, was occupied by a motorized artillery unit, annargently an AT unit.	25X 25X